

Identification, digitisation and georeferencing of baboon spiders in South African museum collections

C. Sole, University of Pretoria

1. Generation of confirmed identification records for approximately 850 baboon spider specimens 2. Production of cleaned, georeferenced digital data for approximately 850 baboon spider specimens, followed by provision of data to appropriate data portals that are currently housed in five different museum collections.